

SOCIETY

Opening of the Social Season at the Moana Hotel.

The formal opening of the social season at the Moana Hotel last night in the form of a dance was a brilliant success. Miss Mary Gunn and Mr. Couvan secured an ovation by opening the ball with an exhibition of the Lulufofo waltz, after which the floor was crowded with gay dancers. Seldom has Honolulu seen such a wonderful gown display nor has it seen quite such a social gathering at an affair of the kind. This was the forerunner of a series of dances at the Moana, though no definite date has been set for the next one.

Reception for President and Mrs. E. C. Webster.

The trustees of the Kamehameha schools, the students, the alumni and friends of the institution gathered in Bishop Hall last night at a reception to meet President and Mrs. E. C. Webster, who recently arrived in Honolulu from New Haven, Connecticut. Mr. Webster succeeded Mr. Percy L. Horne as president of the institution.

The reception was largely attended, many prominent local people being among those who greeted the president. In the receiving line were S. M. Damon, W. O. Smith, E. F. Bishop, A. W. Carter and A. F. Judd, trustees of Kamehameha. Bishop Hall was prettily decorated for the occasion, and music was furnished throughout the evening by the glee club. Miss Johanna Wilcox singing a solo. Mr. Webster was selected for the position by A. F. Judd, who left for the mainland last spring to find a man to take Mr. Horne's place. Governor Pinkham was among those present.

Meeting of the College Club.

The College Club held an interesting open meeting yesterday afternoon at the University Club, at which they entertained a large number of guests. The main talk of the afternoon was "Tying Honolulu Together," by Senator Albert F. Judd. The members of the club were deeply interested in the address, as Mr. Judd brought out many interesting points in which the ladies can help in tying Honolulu together.

Later in the afternoon a social hour was enjoyed and delightful refreshments served.

Members of the club who received during the afternoon were Mrs. Arthur Alexander, president; Mrs. W. R. Farrington, Mrs. A. Lewis, Jr., and Mrs. Giles H. Gere.

Among those at the affair were Mrs. Frederick J. Lowrey, Mrs. Albert Judd, Mrs. Florence Hoffman, Mrs. F. E. Storer, Mrs. A. E. Murphy, Mrs. Marion Campbell, Mrs. Berger, Miss Pezzi Sutherland, Mrs. E. M. Byrd, Mrs. Wallace R. Farrington, Mrs. A. Lewis, Jr., Mrs. Francis R. Day, Miss Ehrhorn, Mrs. Giles H. Gere, Mrs. Arthur Alexander, Miss Ethel Coogrove, Mrs. Erdman Baldwin, Miss Antoinette Foster, Mrs. Chandler, Mrs. William Hopper, Mrs. Owen, Mrs. W. C. Hobbs, Mrs. Knapp, Miss Florence Lawrence and Mrs. Spencer Bowen.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Tenney Back. After spending several months in California visiting friends, Mr. and Mrs. Edward D. Tenney and their daughter, Miss Wilhelmina Tenney, returned to Honolulu yesterday morning. It is expected that Mrs. Tenney will entertain at a number of informal affairs this winter, as it has been her custom to do in seasons past.

To Come to Honolulu.

Within the next fortnight, Mr. and Mrs. George David will arrive in Honolulu and will be an acquisition to Honolulu society. Mr. David is to be transferred to the U. S. revenue cutter Thetis, and his charming wife will make her home in Honolulu. A few years ago Mr. David and Mr. William Hunter were brother officers on the Manning, and it is a coincidence that they should both be brought to the Thetis at the present time. Before her marriage Mrs. David was Miss Loomis, a sister of Mrs. Giles H. Gere of this city, and is well known both here and on Hawaii, where she visited some years ago. Mrs. David has written friends here that she is eagerly waiting for the time when she will leave for the islands, as she will be happy to make her home here.

The Golden Circle Sale.

The Golden Circle Sewing Club will hold a sale of delicacies for the tables, together with a number of dainty articles of dress on Saturday at the Sachs building.

The proceeds of the sale will go to the Leahi Chapter of the Eastern Star. It is promised that the saleable articles will be unusual in their quality and that the prices are such that will be within the pocketbook of everyone.

The officers of the organization are Mrs. C. F. Merrill, president; Mrs. Kirk Porter, secretary, and Mrs. William Daniel, vice-president. The ladies in charge of Saturday's sale will be Mrs. A. BERETANIA STREET CHINESE MISSION in charge of Mr. and Mrs. E. Mackenzie, to be held tomorrow afternoon and evening in the mission building on Beretania street, near Smith street.

This is the first bazaar which has ever been held by the mission and the hundreds of Chinese girls and women of this city have taken the greatest interest in making beautiful things for the counters, the profits of the sale of which will go toward extending the work of the mission among the girls and boys of Chinatown. The girls who are taking a leading part in the preparations are full of pride over the way they are arranging for their bazaar.

In the large downstairs hall will be the booths, where the pretty things will be sold and many a bargain can be found; while upstairs in the large classroom will be served the tea. An extra charge of 25 cents will be made to enter this tearoom, but once in everything is free—the tea, cakes, Chinese candies and nuts. The room will be a "dream of beauty," according to Mrs. Mackenzie, the decorations being of the richest character, while the Chinese girls will be dressed in their festive native dresses of silks and satins.

Buffet Supper for Miss Ruth Lindley.

A pretty affair of Saturday evening was the buffet supper at which Mrs. Harmon Anderson entertained in honor of Miss Ruth Lindley, whose engagement to Mrs. Anderson's brother, Alfred K. Magoon, was announced a few weeks ago. The table was prettily decorated with cut flowers and ferns for the occasion. The guests included Miss Ruth Lindley, Miss Ethel Whiting, Miss Davison, Miss Marie Davison, Miss Catherine Radway, Miss Thelma Lindley, Miss Carol Low, Miss Rose Herbert, the Misses McCarrison, Miss Lucy Brett, Miss Henri Smith, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Magoon, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Atong, Mr. and Mrs. Kannissen, Mrs. Rosa, Miss Helen Rosa, Miss Abbie Buchanan, Capt. and Mrs. Short, Capt. and Mrs. Peck, Lieut. and Mrs. Orville N. Tyler, Messrs. A Meeting of the Mills Club.

The Mills Club will hold a meeting at the home of Mrs. Frederick D. Lowrey on Thursday, November 19, and an invitation is cordially extended to any member of the club who may be visiting in the islands.

Luncheon at the Country Club.

Mrs. S. D. Barnes was hostess at a prettily appointed luncheon, at the Country Club today at which covers were laid for 16.

Miss Alice Cornet and Miss Louise Gerard, who figured prominently in Honolulu society affairs two years ago, have been heard from in San Antonio, Texas, where they are visiting Miss Gerard's father, Col. Gerard. Both Miss Cornet and Miss Gerard visited here is the house-guests of Miss Cornet's sister, Mrs. F. Klamp, and were the inspiration of many of the smartest affairs of that year. They planned to tour Europe with the Klamps this year but their trip has been indefinitely postponed on account of the European war.

It is with deep regret that the many friends of Mrs. Henry Gaillard Smart have heard of her serious illness in San Francisco. Mrs. Smart has not been well since her return from Europe after the outbreak of the war when she, with so many other Americans, came over from the continent in an overcrowded steamer. The death of her baby daughter, also affected her. Mrs. Smart is now with her mother, Mrs. Frederick Knight of San Francisco, where she is receiving every care that can be given her.

Word has been received here that Mr. and Mrs. F. Klamp have taken a home on Washington street, San Francisco, and will remain there indefinitely, for they plan to remain on the mainland while their daughter is attending school there. The Klamps left Honolulu intending to make an extended tour of Europe, but their trip to the old world came to an abrupt end as did that of so many Americans when the war was declared.

Many friends of Senator Cecil Brown were at the dock to meet him yesterday when he returned to town after spending some time in San Francisco, where he has been ill. He was accompanied by his step-daughter, Miss Irene Dickson, who was called to San Francisco to be with Mr. Brown during his sickness. Senator Brown is much improved in health.

Miss Marie Ballentyne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Ballentyne, who has been taking a course as a trained nurse in the Northwest, was a home-

'PUT A COIN IN YOUR POCKET FOR MONDAY,' SLOGAN OF CAMPAIGNERS

"Put a coin in your pocket for Monday."

Mrs. Walter F. Dillingham, who is in charge of the campaign this year upon which are based the hopes of the Anti-Tuberculosis League next year, announces that the ladies, who are marshaling and directing the invasion of the Red Cross seals are only waiting the order to "Charge."

The tuberculosis forces have estimated the value of one dollar of Red Cross seal money as having 66 per cent of the power to save a human life; a dollar and a half saves it.

Last year $620 of the funds raised from Red Cross seal money, explained Dr. Sinclair at the ladies' meeting, was given to the Leahi Home and used as an emergency fund, and this theoretical value was estimated from the home's experience with this money. It was used exclusively to admit patients to a free bed when the regular endowment of the home was insufficient to meet the demand, and as soon as a regularly endowed free bed became vacant they were transferred to it. Thus they were enabled to commence the only treatment which gave them hope for life at the moment they were prepared for it, instead of remaining on the waiting list six or eight weeks without treatment until they were beyond hope.

In the same way $620 was given in the Pa-Ola Day Camp, which is the only place in Honolulu where children shadowed by the great white coming passenger in the Matsonia. Miss Ballentyne has been on the mainland for three or four years and her many friends here will be delighted to have her with them.

Mrs. Albert Ruddle, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eben P. Low, for several weeks, is leaving for Hilo in the Matsonia tomorrow. During her visit here she has been the complimented guest at a number of luncheons and dinners.

Among the homecoming passengers plague can be cured for. In this institution, however, this money went even further.

Figures quoted by Mr. Rath last Monday showed that the greatest value of the Red Cross seal is in the maintenance of the organization fighting the disease, which in many ways was wholly independent on this form of revenue. This work consisted of seeing that as many patients as could be reached were given the printed instructions for the care of themselves and their families, or furthering educational work through the moving picture exhibit, of extending the district nursing system, and in other ways.

Every penny received for a Red Cross seal is expended so as to receive 200 per cent of its value.

Mrs. Dillingham points out that the funds from the sale go to support a continuing work, and are not for transient charity; that the territory each year gains immeasurably from the campaign, and failing it will suffer in like measure.

The flood of other unusual demands made upon Hawaii this year and the sensational nature of many of them may obscure the enormous value of the anti-tuberculosis work. The ladies are consequently spreading the following reminder:

"Put a coin in your pocket for Monday, even if it is a little one, and it may save a life in 1915 to go to the Panama fair and boost Hawaii."

"Dead men don't boost; be a booster!"

In the Matsonia were Mr. and Mrs. W. Shingle. Mrs. Shingle opened her home immediately and last evening entertained at an informal pot supper, prior to the dance at the Moana hotel.

Mrs. W. E. Bellina, who has been visiting friends and relatives in Honolulu, returned to the coast yesterday on the steamer Manoa.

Mrs. Ray Baker Rietow left in the Manoa for a short visit to the mainland.
